

MALLARD AND SWALLOW SONGS

By Emily Bishton

Mallard Ducks (sung to the tune of London Bridge)

Mallard Ducks came flying down, flying down, flying down, Mallard Ducks came flying down to the wetlands.

They landed with a great big splash, great big splash, a great big splash, They landed with a great big splash in the wetlands.

I watched them eating plants and bugs, plants and bugs, plants and bugs, I watched them eating plants and bugs in the wetlands.

Then they flew off with a quack quack quack, a quack quack quack, a quack quack quack, They flew off with a a quack quack quack, Good-bye wetlands!

The Swallow Song (sung to the tune of She'll be Comin' Round the Mountain)

She'll be flyin' 'round the meadow when she comes.

She'll be flyin' 'round the meadow when she comes.

She'll be flyin' 'round the meadow,

She'll be flyin' 'round the meadow,

She'll be flyin' 'round the meadow when she comes.

2nd verse: She'll be eatin' flying insects

3rd verse: She'll be raisin' a new family
